About this release

Rust Music is proud to bring you yet another Danish debut artist after having already debuted Lad De Små Børn Lege (rust/001) and We Go Ego (rust/003).

Aptly enough this 5th release Rust Music features a part of one of the artists name above, more precisely Mathias Lyhne, who is 50 percent of Lad De Små Børn Lege (Danish for "Let The Little Children Play") and 25 percent of Altmodisch.

The EP is a combination of two tracks from the band's previously recorded and self-released EP (only printed in 1.000 copies) and two fresh tracks from the studio created, recorded and produced specifically for this release.

Biography

Altmodisch was founded in December 2007 by brothers Kristoffer (drums) and Mathias Lyhne (programming). Later the two were joined by their old childhood friend neighbor from the city of Vejle, Thomas Mondrup (guitar) and later Hans Christian (vocals) from the sunny island of Bornholm.

The four draw inspiration from artists such as Portishead, The Notwist and Postal Service, labeling their style "indietronica". They explore on the tension field between the electronic and the analog, the modern and the old fashioned with focus on building and releasing the energy in every track. They do this with combining floating collages of sound with catchy melodies, creating an irresistible indietronica cocktail.

The band is already in talks with a foreign label regarding a future album release, yet nothing remains absolutely solid in this early phase.

For the people out there interested in linguistics, "Altmodisch" is German for "old fashioned". We let you be the judge, whether or not that description fits the band, but we certainly don't believe so.

Previous praise

"The two guitar and keyboard playing singers Hans Christian and Thomas Mondrup in Altmodisch understand two come up with thoughtful and catchy tunes, like Postal Service, while Mathias and Kristoffer Lyhne creates a solid, glitchy platform."

- Danish music magazine Soundvenue labelling Altmodisch "Soundvenue Selected" in November 2008.

Altmodisch: "Altmodisch" will be released on Rust Music on February 2nd 2008.

About Rust Music

Rust Music is a new Danish label run by Copenhagen concert venue and nightclub Rust. Instead of being another label focused on feeding the mainstream market, Rust Music focuses on side projects, live versions and b-sides.

Rust Music will present the oblique and surprising approaches, which doesn't stick to the middle lane. Rust Music focuses on niche productions that would otherwise not have found their way to the market.
